It's been revealed that Heated Rivalry is getting (another) official soundtrack. Back in January, the show got its first official soundtrack release on streaming, which featured Heated Rivalry's score by composer Peter Peter, including hits like "It's You, which got so popular it even placed on the Billboard charts.

But this summer, the series is getting a digital and physical release of a full soundtrack. The new soundtrack will include Peter Peter's complete score, along with hit singles from the show, like "Mangetout" by Wet Leg, "I'll Believe in Anything" by Wolf Parade, and both versions of "All the Things She Said" by t.A.T.u. and Harrison.

On top of releasing digitally, the soundtrack is also getting physical editions, both on vinyl and CD. The release dates for the new soundtrack are hovering between July 10 and July 13, with each retailer having a slightly different release date (ordering online at big retailers like Amazon seems to get you the soundtrack a few days before physical stores will have it). Best of all, pre-orders have already gone live!

Read on to discover everything you need to know about 2026's hottest soundtrack.
