powerful past few months, so it's gonna be good to hang out with them in a different setting."

Yardley has a specific strategy when it comes to outfitting rising star Storrie. "[It's about styling] him not with a costume element, because it's never that, but with a nod to leading men from Hollywood history," Yardley previously told Vanity Fair.

The two connected as Storrie's agent was a longtime friend of Yardley's. "I think there was a very small trailer for Heated Rivalry at that point," the stylist recalled. "It wasn't full length. They showed me the picture of him and I went, 'God, he's gorgeous. He looks like a model.' I was like, 'He'd be great to dress. Let's do it.' "
