Heated Rivalry's author is set to take the stage at Massey Hall for what's being billed as "An Evening with Rachel Reid."

Bluesound PULSE CINEMA MINI

Taking place October 13, Reid is set to participate in a 45-minute on-stage conversation, followed by what a press release promises will be an "extended audience Q&A."

The night celebrates the deluxe hardcover release of Reid's book Heated Rivalry — the hockey romance book that, of course, spawned Jacob Tierney's TV show. Premium tickets for the Massey Hall talk come with a copy of the novel, including a signed bookplate.

Tickets are available starting this Friday (July 10) from Massey Hall's website.

In addition to this appearance from Reid, a Heated Rivalry parody musical is also coming to Toronto.
