Canadian hockey romance Heated Rivalry is heading to the big screen, with Cineplex set to screen the hit series across select theatres in November.

The theatrical event begins November 6, giving audiences the chance to revisit all six episodes of the Crave Original series ahead of its second season, expected in spring 2027. The screenings are part of an international rollout organized by Sphere Abacus, a Bell Media company, with theatrical engagements also planned in the United States and United Kingdom. Australia and New Zealand will follow in December.

Julia Stiles Honors Heath Ledger With 'Dancing With the Stars' Performance

BY LARISHA PAUL Oct 21, 2026

The cast of 10 Things I Hate About You paid tribute to their late co-star Heath Ledger during Dedication Week on Dancing With the Stars. Julia Stiles, who is competing on the series this season, performed Frankie Valli's "Can't Take My Eyes Off You" with her professional partner, Ezra Sosa, in a nod to the 1999 film.

At the conclusion of the performance, Stiles was joined by Andrew Keegan, Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Larisa Oleynik, Gabrielle Union, and Susan May Pratt. The cast stood alongside Stiles after she laid a flower for Ledger, who died in 2008 at the age of 28, on the steps of the stage. They linked their arms in front of an image of Stiles and Ledger as

Multiple Sclerosis: 'It's Very Confusing'

BY KORY GROW Oct 20, 2026

Five years after Christina Applegate's doctors told her that she had multiple sclerosis, they're now telling her she never had the autoimmune disorder. The actress revealed the news on MeSsy, her MS-themed podcast she hosts with Jamie Lynn Sigler, who has MS, since March 2024. She said she's in a "state of shock" over the news, which she calls a "mindfuck." What's most frustrating for Applegate, though, is that she still has symptoms that no longer have an explanation and that she feels she accidentally misrepresented herself to those with the disorder, according to People.
On back-to-back episodes of the podcast, Applegate explained that she took a leave of absence from the podcast in March while she processed her doctor's news. "She came into my room and said, 'Congratulations, you don't have MS,'" Applegate said. "I was, like, not happy at all. Everybody else

The Simpsons brought back fan favorite Apu Nahasapeemapetilon on Sunday night's episode, revealing a new voice for the character after nine years.
Apu appeared in "The Revengening" with Sunil Malhotra taking over for Hank Azaria, who voiced Apu in the past. The character has been but not heard on since the October 2017 episode "The Serfsons" and his new voice was a surprise for fans as the creators didn't announce the casting in

Maren Morris Hits Back at Shane Gillis' 'SNL' Joke About Women Being 'Whores' at the Gym

BY EMILY ZEMLER Oct 13, 2026

Gillis hosted the late-night sketch show on Saturday night and spent his monologue commenting on how women dress at the gym. “I haven’t been to the gym in so long I didn’t know women just dress like whores now?” Gillis said. “Look, I’m sorry, there’s no other way to describe it. Have you seen it? I’ve seen it. You’ve seen the shorts? They’re those neon, like, artificial bait-colored. And the wrinkles go around the cheeks and all combine at the butthole. And don’t look! You’re not allowed to look. For real, don’t look, because t
